

DELAWARE DEMOCRATIC

Delaware Democratic Party Veterans Caucus

September 2023

Section 1: Name, Purpose, and Membership

Delaware Democratic Party Veterans Caucus

1. Name

- a. The organization shall be known as the Delaware Democratic Party Veterans Caucus herein referred to as the Caucus or "DDV".

2. Purpose

- a. The purpose of the DDV is to strengthen bonds among Democratic Veterans of the Armed Forces of the United States ("Veterans") in Delaware, promote democratic principles and ideals, actively promote participation by Veterans in the electoral process, and enhance Veterans' participation in the Democratic Party throughout Delaware and local Delaware communities.
- b. In furtherance of this purpose, the Caucus shall actively encourage and support veterans to participate as Democratic Party officers and representatives at all levels.
 - a. Promote and encourage the full participation of all veteran Democrats in all facets of the Delaware Democratic Party and civic processes.
 - b. Give the Party guidance regarding the concerns of Delaware veterans and collaborate with them on policies that reflect the interests and welfare of veteran communities; and
 - c. Act as a vehicle for the implementation of initiatives in veterans communities by building coalitions with Representative District Committees, local community leaders, and related organizations.

3. Membership

- a. Full Membership shall be open to all registered Democrats who
 - i. Identify as a military veteran and Delaware Democrat;
 - ii. Proof of veteran status will be required by executive committee. DD-214 or other appropriate document may suffice as determined by executive committee. Discretion on discharge status may be a discriminator in committee officer positions.
 - iii. Commit to the purpose of the Caucus; and
 - iv. Pay annual dues as set by the Executive Committee or receive a waiver from the Membership Committee.
- b. Associate membership shall be open to all other registered Democrats who commit to the purpose of the caucus and will be allowed to participate in general membership activities and meetings as well as serve on Caucus Committees but shall not be allowed to vote in general Caucus matters.

Section 2: Caucus Operations

1. Endorsements

- a. The Caucus may elect to endorse any candidate for partisan or nonpartisan office in a primary election and recommend the candidate to the appropriate Party committee. This shall not bind any member of the Caucus from making a public endorsement or contribution in their independent capacity of any candidate whether endorsed or not endorsed by the Party or Caucus.
- b. The Caucus may elect to endorse or not endorse any candidate in the general election but must coordinate any financial contributions with the Party.
- c. The Caucus reserves the rights the Constitution guarantees of free speech, to publish and share views and opinions on all Democratic candidates, whether endorsed or not endorsed, especially as it relates to matters of interest to communities of color.
- d. The process for endorsements shall be approved at the Annual Convention and be made available publicly and by request to any member that requests it.

2. Meetings

- a. General meetings of the Caucus will be held at a time most convenient for the majority of the membership and should occur monthly.
- b. The Executive Committee may from time to time call special meetings provided at least seven days advance notice is given to all members.
- c. There shall be a Caucus Conference held in February of each year on a date selected by the Executive Committee to elect new leadership, approve of a new platform, and amend bylaws as needed.
- d. The time and place for all general meetings may be shared with the Party for publication and all members should be notified by email at least seven days in advance.
- e. No less than one-third of the general voting membership shall constitute a quorum for any business.
- f. No votes shall not be taken by secret ballot.
- g. Except as otherwise provided, all questions before the Caucus shall be determined by a simple majority vote of those members allowed to vote and present in person or by proxy.
- h. Voting by proxy shall be allowed on matters presented during regular meetings. Proxies may be either general or limited and either instructed or uninstructed but must be done by members regularly allowed to vote. All proxies shall be in writing and transferable if so specified. No member may at any one time hold or exercise a proxy for more than one other member of the Caucus.
